

The information presented on this website is educational in nature and is provided only as general information. By viewing this website, you understand that you will be introduced to transformational and healing consciousness techniques based on quantum physics called Matrix Energetics (“ME”). To date, ME has yielded remarkable results and appears to have promising mental, spiritual, and physical health benefits but has yet to be fully researched by the Western academic, medical, and psychological communities.

While there are differing views as to exactly What ME is (or what happens with the Laying on of Hands, Quantum Entrainment or other modalities practiced), the prevailing premise is that ME with focused attention accesses the “Zero Point Energy Field” where healing and transformation may occur. By viewing this website you understand that ME could be considered experimental and neither George Thomas nor Matrix Energetics International knows how you will personally respond to ME and whether ME will help you with a particular problem. You understand that no guarantee or warranty of any kind is expressed or implied. There are no promises of specific results and that none of our practices are suggested as a substitute for medical advice or treatment.

Due to the experimental nature of ME, and because it is a relatively new healing approach and the extent of its effectiveness, as well as its risks and benefits are not fully known, you agree to assume and accept full responsibility for any and all risks associated with using ME and viewing this website. You understand that if you choose to use ME it is possible that emotional or physical sensations or additional unresolved memories may surface which could be perceived as negative side effects. Emotional and/or physical effects may continue to surface after using ME, indicating other issues may need to be addressed. Previously vivid or traumatic memories may fade which could adversely impact your ability to provide detailed legal testimony regarding a traumatic incident.

The information contained on this website is not intended to represent that any of our practices, including ME are used to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease or psychological disorder. Nor are they a substitute for medical or psychological treatment. You agree to consult with your health care provider for any specific medical/psychological problems. In addition, you understand that any information contained on this website is not to be considered a recommendation that you stop seeing any of your health care professionals or using prescribed medication, if any, without consulting with your health care professional, even if after viewing this website and/or having a Session it appears and indicates that such medication or therapy is unnecessary.

Any stories or testimonials presented on this website do not constitute a warranty, guarantee, or prediction regarding the outcome of an individual using any of our practices for any particular issue. While all materials and references to other resources are given in good faith, the accuracy, validity, effectiveness, completeness, or usefulness of any information on this website, cannot be guaranteed. George Thomas, Monica Alva-Thomas and others whose services are alluded to or listed on this website accept no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the use or misuse of the information contained on this website.

We strongly advise that you seek professional advice as appropriate before implementing any protocol or opinion expressed on this website and before making any health decision. By continuing to view this website, you knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently assume these risks, including any adverse outcome that might result from using ME or other practices mentioned, and agree to release, indemnify, hold harmless and defend www.iwantjoy.com, and its, owners, directors, agents, consultants, employees, and volunteers from and against any and all claims which you, or your representatives, may have for any loss, damage, or injury of any kind or nature arising out of or in connection with viewing this website and/or participating in a Session either physically in-person or remotely. If any court of law rules that any part of this Disclaimer is invalid, the Disclaimer stands as if those parts were struck out.

PRIVACY POLICY

Any and all communications with any and all clientele are and will continue to be held in strict confidence. The ONLY possible exceptions may be reporting, with the client's approval, of results in the form of testimonials.

While nutrition (including supplements) and consciousness technologies (including hypnosis and/or Focused Mind Healing when warranted) may be recommended, there is not and will not be any advice contrary to medical counsel from licensed healthcare providers. There is no animus toward allopathic medicine or any other specific practice.

The methods and protocols accessed will not be shared by the principals or staff without written permission from the client, and then only for training purposes, as client confidentiality is sacrosanct.
